

Executive Summary

The study of socio-Economic & Political condition of Pardhi community settled in Newasa taluka has been satisfactory completed. The investigator could find out the problem faced by the villagers of Newasa taluka

And investigator could give proper suggestion to improve the socio-Economic condition of the people because every study is designed not only to yield knowledge but also to help them through studies to take the problem they face.

Thus, in concluding part of the study the investigator and suggestion, which are necessary for completion of the project . In short, this study will helps the readers to understand the socio-Economic condition of Pardhi community settled in Newasa taluka.

Finally the investigator wants to draw the attention of several voluntary organizations. NGOs and Government agencies to give aids and co-operation for the development of this Newasa taluka.