

ACA – R - 16	Faculty Development Program by Jagnath Rao	Academic Year: 2018-19
Rev : 00		Annual/Semester: I / II
Date: 15.06.2018

Ref: MES/ACSC/ACA/ /

Date: 22-23 Aug. 2018

A) Introduction:

The College organized Faculty Development Program on 22-23 Aug. 2018. It was a motivational program by Dr. Jagnath Rao, Parapsychologist and HRD Trainer, Bengaluru. The program was designed to understand and to exercise different methods of Psychology to make stress management.

B) Report:

On the first day the interactive session on personality development was arranged. How, extrovert personality is a essential quality to be great teacher was dealt by the trainer. The trainer also expanded the idea of success and the mind power.

On the second day the trainer arranged Yoga Techniques for stress management.

Total 139 participants from different branches of Mula Education Society, Sonai namely Mula Public School, Yash Academy, College of Pharmacy, Shri Dnyaneshwar Mahavidyalaya, Newasa along with the host college actively participated in the personality development program.

C) Outcome:

The teaching faculty learned different ideas like; personality, attitude, mind set, Success, imagination through the active participation in the exercises conducted by the trainer. The teachers developed positive attitude towards teaching. The teaching faculty learned the benefits of self confidence and will power. The F.D. program inculcated in teaching faculty modern techniques for making his class room an active workshop were students learners can learn positively.

