Different days were organized from 28 to 30 January 2019 as a part of annual function. Prof. Meena Lande coordinated the activities. On the final day variety program was organized. The program began with Ganesh Vandana sung by Prof. Miss. Harshali Lohkare. It was followed by dance, singing, poetry reading and other talent by girls and other students. The variety program was coordinated by Head of Arts circle Dr. Jagdish Sonawane and Prof. Jagdish Musmade. On the occasion faculty members support staff along with student and alumni were present.

Principal Dr. Shankar Laware reviewed the progressive graph of the college along with proposals submitted to national agencies in the introduction of annual prizes distribution ceremony. Chief Guest Dr. Sanjay Kalamkar and MES President Shri. Prashant Patil Gadakh were felicitated by offering books. Later student council chairman Dr. Shweta Choudhare presented the report on annual activities carried out in the year.

Chief Guest Dr. Sanjay Kalamkar enlightened the student on the theme "Where youth are going wrong?" He stressed that words are losing values. Mobile has stopped expressing self. Mobile has become fundamental thing due to development in science. The family who live in virtual world is scared of real world. He stressed that the real beauty involves in arts. To see this, we must change our views. The questions should be directed to self, before directing them to history. He expressed that reading culture is must for nurturing positive attitude. Shri Prashant Gadakh stated that youth in virtual world are threat to the society and nation at large. He assured to invite philosophers from different domains of life to offer the treasure of knowledge.
