C) PREREQUISITES: Basic Knowledge of English Language.

D) INTRODUCTION:

These courses fulfill the basic oral communication requirement. We'll learn about basic communication theories and explore different types of communication, such as interpersonal, small group and public communication. These skills are essential for success as a communicator.

The purpose of these courses is to introduce students to the theory, fundamentals and tools of communication and to develop in them vital communication skills which should be integral to personal, social and Professional interactions. One of the critical links among human beings and an important thread that binds society together is the ability to share thoughts, emotions and ideas through various means of communication: both verbal and non-verbal. In the context of rapid globalization and increasing recognition of social and cultural pluralities, the significance of clear and effective communication has substantially enhanced. The present courses hope to address some of these aspects through an interactive mode of teaching-learning process and by focusing on various dimensions of communication skills. Some of these are: Language of communication, various speaking skills such as personal Communication, social interactions and communication in professional situations such as interviews, group discussions and office environments, important reading skills as well as writing skills such as report writing, note taking etc.

It is hoped that after studying these courses, students will find a difference in their personal and professional interactions.

E) DURATION:

The duration of the each course shall be of 07 days and 30 teaching hrs.

F) MEDIUM OF INSTRUCTION:

Medium of instruction shall be in English only.
