Rev:00		Annual/Semester:II
Date:15.06.2018

A) Descriptive Report

a) Introduction:

The Chhatrapati Shivaji Maharaj was born on February 19, 1630, in the majestic Shivneri Fort. The Chhatrapati Shivaji Maharaj Jayanti is celebrated to honor the life, achievements, and legacy of Chhatrapati Shivaji Maharaj. He is considered a symbol of courage, valor, and patriotism in India, especially in the state of Maharashtra. His life and achievements continue to inspire millions, and Shivaji Jayanti serves as a reminder of the values he stood for—valor, governance, and unwavering nationalism.

b) Description of event:

Mula Education Society's Arts, Commerce and Science College, Sonai, on 18th February 2025 at 8.30 am, a lecture was organized on the role of today's youth as the ideological heirs of Chhatrapati Shivaji Maharaj by Shivcharitra lecturer Shri. Kumar Birdawade. The introduction and welcome of this program was given by National Service Scheme Program Officer Dr. Balasaheb Khedkar. On this occasion, the image of Chhatrapati Shivaji Maharaj was worshipped and greeted. While guiding the students, Honorable Kumar Birdawade explained Chhatrapati Shivaji Maharaj's policy on equality and said that the Maharaj was able to establish Hindavi Swarajya because he took people of all castes and religions close to him and trusted them. He built Swarajya for the principles of freedom, equality and brotherhood, and did not give a platform to caste religion. Chhatrapati Shivaji Maharaj was a person with a character and character as high as the Himalayas. Honorable Kumar Birdawade further says about Chhatrapati Shivaji Maharaj is that in the year 1672, in the London Gazette, in 'The Shivaji King of India', if Shivaji's kingdom expanded, the British would not be able to expand their kingdom in India. Chhatrapati Shivaji Maharaj was a king who did not live for himself but for others. It is easy to tell and write about Shivaji's work, but it is difficult for every citizen to live like Shivaji. There has never been an ideal king like Shivaji Maharaj. He extended Swarajya by making the masses of various communities his own. Then, the Principal of the college, Dr. Shankar Laware Sir, elaborated on the biography and work of Shivaji Maharaj in his presidential address.
